

Religious Education Rules

Show respect for the catechist.

- No talking while the catechist is speaking.
- Pay attention to lesson.
- No passing notes
- No leaving the room without permission.

Show respect for classmates.

- No touching others.
- No talking while another student is talking.
- Do not take or damage other people's property.

Show respect for church building.

- Do not write on or damage any property in the church.
- Do not run or roughhouse, or be loud.

Show respect for faith

- Participate in the class lesson.
- Use appropriate language.

Consequences for breaking rules:

- 1st. Time in one night- warning
- 2nd. Time in one night- one of the catechists will leave class to call the student's parents to come pick him/her up.
- If this happens two classes in a row, parents will be asked to be present with the child in class until the behavior improves.

Photo Release

Name of child: _____ Date: _____

I, _____, give my permission to photograph, audio record, and video tape my child within the activities of St. James Religious Education. I give permission that these pictures can be used in public when used as educational and publicity purposes with programs related to the St. James parish and Archdiocese of Portland. Please initial.

_____ Yes, I give my permission _____ No, I do not want photos taken of my child

Your signature indicates you have read and agree to the Religious Education Rules, Weekly Mass Attendance and Parental Class Participation.

Student's Signature

Guardian's Signature